

Little Cruisers, Big Adventures

Everything your 3-year-old and 6-year-old will love on board

Norwegian Encore is one of the largest, newest-feeling ships in Norwegian's fleet, and it's built for families who want the kids happily busy and some time for the grown-ups. Here's what the trip looks like through the eyes of a preschooler and a first-grader, plus the practical details parents always ask about.

Who goes where in the kids' club

YOUR 3-YEAR-OLD

Turtles ages 3–5

- Hands-on arts & crafts, story time and silly songs
- Active games and age-right play with kids the same size
- Small-group pace designed for preschool attention spans

YOUR 6-YEAR-OLD

Seals ages 6–9

- Sports, scavenger hunts and team games
- Science experiments and bigger craft projects
- Themed days so every visit feels new

Different age groups mean each child plays at their own level. Splash Academy (ages 3–12) is included in your cruise fare and housed in a large two-story space on Deck 5.

Good to know before you sail

- Board early and register on day one. Splash Academy spots are first come, first served.
- Potty training matters. Counselors can't help in the restroom. Kids still in pull-ups can join, but a parent carries a pager.
- No swim diapers in the pools or Aqua Park — a U.S. public-health rule on all cruise ships.
- Kids' club runs while the ship is sailing. Port-day options vary; check the app once aboard.
